There is very little sickness in and around the city, and the physicians are having a very easy time. The report reached the city last Sunday that Mrs. E. J. Earle, of the Rock Mills section, was dead, but it gives us pleasure to state that the report is not true. Dr. W. H. Nardin, of this city, visited Mrs. Earle yesterday, and while she has been very sick, he reports her much better. We join her many friends in wishing her a smeedy recovery.

We are requested to announce that there will be a school pic nic at Carswell Institute on Saturday, August 11th. Several speakers have been invited to be present. The public is cordially invited to attend. Of course, the dinner basket should not be forgotten. This occasion will no doubt be an enjoyable one, and will be largely attended.

Rev. J. D. Mahon and wife, of Clinton, are now in Anderson, visiting the latter's father, Mr. D. Oroeby, and other relatives. The Grenwood correspondent of the Abbeville Press and Earner says: "Beulah Church, near Smithville, will be dedicated the second Sunday in August. Rev. D. W. Hiott, of Williamston, will preach the dedicatory sermon in the morning, and the pastor, Rev. A. C. Stepp, will preach in the afternoon. The meeting will be protracted from that day." W. F. Mrs. J. G. Riley and Mrs. S L. Eskew returned home last Sajurday from a two weeks' visit among relatives in Union County, Miss. Prof. B. S. Patrick, youngest son of Col. John B. Patrick, will leave in a few days for Cuthbert, Ga., where he has been elected Commandant of Cadets and professor of mathematics of the Bethel Male College of that town. The trustees of the College have made a wise selection, as Prof. Patrick is thoroughly qualified for the two positions. He will carry with him to his new home the best wishes of his friends in Anderson. All persons interested are requested to meet at Neal's Creek Church on Friday, 3rd Inst., for the purpose of cleaning off Nearly all of our citizens who went on the excursion to Toronto, Canada, have returned home, and report having a most enjoyable trip.

There will be a competitive examination There will be a competitive examination held on the 24th day of August, in this County, under the charge of the County School Commissioner, for a scholarship in Furman University, worth fifty dollars, an amount sufficient to cover tuition for one year. The appointee is to enter the lowest College class. For further information, caialogues, etc., address Charles L. Durham, Secretary of Faculty, Furman University, Greenville, S. C. The trial of Mr. F. G. Massey, which was to have taken place in Spartanburg last week, was postponed until the fall term of Court. Misses Eunice, Lob and Mattle Hill, and Misses Irene and Gertrude Jones, of this city, have been visiting relatives in Hart County, Ga.

A number of the Baptists from this section are attending the annual meeting of the Saluda Association, which is in session at Rocky River Church. Foster, the 5-year-old son of Mr. C. F. Jones, had a narrow escape from a terrible death yesterday morning. > Anderson County has lost another one of its best citizens in the death of Mr. Wm. S. Martin, which occurred suddenly at his home in Williamston Township last Wednesday. Two brothers-in-law, with their wives, were spending the day with Mr. and Mrs. Martin, and were sitting on Mr. and Mrs. Martin, and were sitting on the piazza enjoying a pleasant conversation, when suddenly Mr. Martin stooped over slightly and fell out of his chair. Before his loved ones could realize what had happened he was dead. It is the general opinion that apoplexy or heart disease was the cause of his death. Mr. Martin wan about 60 years of age, and had spent the greater portion of his life in the section where he died. He served faithfully through the war, and had the confidence of triends and relatives, all of whom feel that his place as a friend, a neighbor and a citizen will be hard to fill. He leaves no children. To his devoted wife we tender our sympathies. Truly, a good man has gone to reap the rewards of a well spent life.

An unexpected change in running the trains over the Columbia & Greenville Railroad and the old Blue Ridge Road Railroad and the old Blue Ridge Road took place in Anderson this morning. A few weeks ago the C. & G. R. R. was sold and purchased by the Southern Railway Company. In the order of sale the Blue Ridge Road was not mentioned, and it is still in the hands of the Federal Court. The Southern Railway Company will continue to operate it, but all of its business will be separated from the C. & G. R. R. At this point the trains to and from Anderson on the B. R. R. Will change engines and crews, with Capt. John Anderson as Conductor. The crews on the trains to and from Columbia will lay over in Anderson at night. The passengers in Anderson at night. The passengers will not have to change cars, and there will be no change in schedules, all connections being made as before. The B. R. R. Will probably be sold in the near future, and the Southern Railway Company, of course, will be the purchasers when of course, will be the purchasers, when the trains will run through as formerly. Superintendent McBee will continue to manage the B. R. R. R.

A friend hands us the following with request that we insert it in the Brushy Creek news: "A literary society should be organized in Brushy Creek. It should not be for the young people alone, but should include all. There is talent enough should include all. There is talent enough here to make one evening in every week entertaining. In such a society the people could meet and exchange their views on any subject, and the associations thus made would be pleasant to remember ever afterwards. Who will take the lead in the organization? It is not necessary that you yourself be very literary, but that does not keep you from appreciating it in others."

Well, we are about all done laying by well, we are about all done laying by now and are in for a few weeks rest, and aren't we having a sweet time! In watermelons and cantaloupes up to our eyes! Crops growing so fast you can almost hear 'em. Nothing much to do but read the 'em. Nothing much to do but read the papers and view passing events with the boys. Not a bit hot about the Tillman-Butler campsign; don't care a continental which one beats. Just a "let'n' 'her go, Gallagher!" Trying our best to keep cool and "hands off," but plague on it all the thing won't hardly work. When we seek the shady nook and throw ourselves upon nature's velvety carnet to take a reat. upon nature's velvety carpet to take a rest, to let the gentle breeze, ladened with the sweet odor of the beautiful wild flowers, fan us, and the merry songs of the birds and the murmur of the brook eing us to sleep—that balmy sleep you read about in novels—a kind of air pervades that region that completely drowns out the supreme happiness that we had so pleasantly an-ticipated, and we fall to ruminating. Then before we are aware of it we are askinen pelore we are aware of it we are asking ourselves "where we are at?" On the fence, by jingo! And with our hands deep down in our pockets and our legs dangling down, we are beating a kind of tattoo on down, we are beating a kind of tattoe on the rails and thinking about—what? The Etate campaign? I reckon that's it. Isn't it a caution the way the candidates and the people are conducting themselves. Howled down in Charleston. Barely missed bloodshed at Edgefield, and at no place has the spirit that should reign supreme at such gatherings showed itself. For minutes at Edgefield men were standing with their hands on pistols and with knives tightly clutched, ready to use on each other! Hundreds of them ready for action and with fellow-beings singled out as targets for their pistols, stood glaring as targets for their pistols, stood glaring like beasts! One shot would have caused

A very good con gregation of nice looking people were attentively listening to the preacher. The tent, which has a seating capacity of 250, was well provided with seats. Under the tent where preaching was going on there was also a bed, a combination bicycle and other useful articles. Near the large tent was a smaller one which appeared to be used as a kitchen and dining room. It was provided with a cooking stove. The preachers are nice looking, and are said to receive nine dollars a week for their work. They are pleasantly and comfortably located."

But the said on the switch about this deplorable state of affairs? Who taught our people to behave thus? People following hot, bull-headed and reckless leaders, refusing to exercise their own judgment and taking everything that is published in "reform organs" to be gospel facts, has, in our humble opinion, figured no little in the drama. The health of our people is very good, with the exception of Mrs. Wilson Reeves and Mrs. W. J. Erwin, both of whom are quite sick at this writing. We wish them a speedy recovery.

Rev. W. B. Hawkins has just closed a week's meeting at New Prospect Church, Twelve were received into the Church by baptism and several by letter. May the Lord's work continue there.

Those who attended the exercises of Children's Day at New Hope report a very interesting meeting.

The pic nic at old Friendship Church was quite an enjoyable occasion, so the attendants say. Quite a serious accident happened to our party on their return, in which Miss Annie Shirley and W. F. Harper received painful but not serious hurts. Mr. M. I. Brock, accompanied by wife and children, and Mrs. T. H. Brock and children, are rusticating in the mountains. ladies furnish the chicken, cooked to their liking; bread, cake and ples of any and every description; pickles, preserves, jam and jellies—in fact, everything in their line of cooking; and that the meats be beef, pig, mutton and kid and barbecued. All who could not contribute meat (owing to distance) be assessed or contribute enough pected that three or four can furnish all the meat and pay for cooking.

The meeting will number at least four hundred. Moreover, if we could announce certainly that we would have John G. Clinkscales to deliver us an address on the genealogy and history of the family, and J. L. Orr an introductory, and R. P. Clinkscales the valedictory, or George Prince, if you prefer, we could get from four to six hundred together, as a great many would be as much, or more, interested in the speaking than the gathering together of the family. Besides this we expect to have some fine music to enliven expect to have some fine music to enliven

The Fairview Stock Show.

EDITORS INTELLIGENCER: Our Stock Show for 1894 will take place September 21st, on our show grounds near Fairview church. Among the new features that will appear on our program for that day, will be the competing of Anderson county against Spartanburg and Greenville against Laurens for the best display of all stock under four years old. We take this opportunity of extending to all lovers of good stock, etc., a cordial invitation to be on hand that day, and to any that may wish to come into the neighborhood beforehand will find a regular old South Carolina welcome, "the latch string," and all on the outside. Come and bring something to show in the Fairview Stock Show Association, W. H. Britt, Secretary.

Walker-McElmovle School, The trustees and patrons of this school are requested to meet at the school house August 10th, at 9.30 s. m., to consider the best method of using the school-farm and property for the good of the community, and do the more important work of electing a teacher.

and do the more important work of electing a teacher.

Any first grade teacher wishing to take charge of this school will do well to apply in person or by letter that day or earlier.

A full one-horse crop or more is open on the farm, accompanied by a good tenant house. This is to be rented.

Also a comfortable teacher's home near the school building can be rented from the school building, can be rented from Miss Newton.

Obituary.

It is with profound sorrow that we announce the death of little Keltso, the youngest daughter of W. A. and R. F. Moorehead, which occurred July 12th, 1894, aged three years and three months. She had been sick for some time, but was not thought to be serious until a few hours. not thought to be serious until a few hours before her death. Kind friends attended, loving hands administered, but the angel of death came and claimed the victory To the bereaved we would say sorrow no as those who have no hope. She cannot come back to you, but you can go to her. Her remains were laid to rest in the family burying ground Friday evening. Little Keltso is now in Heaven,

And is singing, sweetly singing,
In the paradise above,
While her parents dear are weeping
For the darling one they love. J. H. MOOREHEAD.

— Capt. S. J. McCaughrin has a cow that has a record that is hard to beat. The cow's name is Flora Lyle. On the 7th day of August next she will be 16 years old and has had 14 calves—seven heifers and seven bulls. In 1892 this cow welghed 800 pounds and gave her weight in milk (800 pounds) in 16 days. # MR. J. F. CLINKSOALES—Dear Sir: At a meeting of a number of Olinkscales' at my house last Tuesday, to consider the matter of having a general re-union of the family, it was decided to hold or call one for August 22nd, to meet in a grove on my land near Midway Baptist Church, and that all the name—descendants of our grandfather, Francis Clinkscales—be invited to participate and attend. That the ladies furnish the chicken, cooked to their # distance) be assessed or contribute enough to meet actual expenses. I hope there is no Clinkscales so very close as to complain at the amount which must necessarily occur in providing seats, clearing off the grove, hauling water, getting ice and lemons, (if decided to do that,) and a balance on meats, which will not amount to much. It is not expected that one or two families can clean off the grove, provide material for and place the seats, build a speakers' stand and arbor for shading a portion of the ground, though naturally a very nice and shady place. Nor is it expected that three or four can furnish all the meat and pay for cooking. PRICE NO OBJECT.

ALL ARE INVITED.
